THE MARKETS.

New York Stock Market. New York, July 18.-The Western Union are this morning destroyed the means of com-munication with the outside world to a great extent, and brokers today found themselves with no means of getting business except from these customers who happened to be in the city. Trading in the market was entirely local. In the last hour the announcement was made that the decision denying the right to the receiver of the North River sugar refinery to proceed against other properties of trust had been handed down and sugar refineries lifted 3 per cent. The rest of the market sympathized to a limited extent and closed firm, though very dull, at something better than opening figures. Government bonds neglected. Har silver closed at $1.0844. Petroleum opened strong at 895c, advanced to where for spot and see for August, but later spot
